

What is National Association of Case Management?

The National Association of Case Management is the premier, not-for-profit national voice for Case Managers and Service Coordinators. Members are part of a network of practicing professionals who are advocates for community-based case management systems, who share ideas and work to minimize bureaucratic barriers, promote high ethical standards, support career growth, and promote the vitality and the professional image of case management and service coordination.

Inside are our three Distinguished Membership levels. Of course, our traditional Individual Membership level is also available.

Our Mission

The mission of the National Association of Case Management is to provide Case Managers and other service coordination practitioners opportunities for advancing professional growth and for the promotion of case management. We accomplish these goals through educational meetings, conferences, association communiqués, and policy development that continues the definition and refinement of the case management process.

Case management and service coordination are professional practices in which the service recipient is a partner, to the greatest extent possible, in assessing needs, defining desired outcomes, obtaining services, treatments and supports, and in preventing and managing crises.
